SULTAN'S REFORMS

Just a Mere Comedy to Make it Possible to Raise a Loan in Paris.

The British Motor Car Club Celebrate Passage of New Highway Act.

American Scientists Secure a Natural History Collection in Somaleland.

London, Nov. 14.—An enormous concourse, including the Duke of Teck and Princes Edward and Herman of Saxe-Weimar, witnessed the start to-day from the Hotel Metropole of about sixty motors and cycles, under the auspices of the Motor Car Club in the inaugural journey from London to Brighton, this being the date when the new highways act comes into force. The start was preceded by breakfast at the Metropole, after which the chairman, the Earl of Winchilsea, amid loud cheers, tore up the red flag which according to law it has hitherto been necessary to have carried in front of road motors. The first motor, which reached Three Bridges knocked down a little girl and seriously injured her.

Prof. D. G. Elliott, leader of the Field Columbian Museum, Chicago, expedition with Mr. E. C. Akeby, head taxidermist of that department of the museum, left Southampton to-day by the St. Louis on their return to America, after a most successful mission into Somaliland, whither they went last March for the purpose of making a natural history collection for the museum.

The Daily Mail's Constantinople correspondent says the Sultan's concession of reform to M. Cambon, the French ambassador, is a mere financial comedy with a view to raise a loan in Paris to avert the otherwise inevitable financial crisis.

United States Minister Taylor at Madrid, has issued a note declaring that the Spanish minister of foreign affairs, the Duke of Tetnan, has always acted in a manner calculated to prevent disagreement between the United States and Spain.

Great devastation has been caused by floods in Bosnia. A rescue party of thirteen persons were drowned near Serajevon.

A Paris dispatch says: "Eclairs says today it learns that peace has been declared between Italy and Abyssinia, on terms very favorable to the Negus, who gets satisfaction on all points.

It is reported that the Queen is about to make a new will. The one now in existence was made 22 years ago and has 22 codicils, necessitated by changes in the royal family. It is engrossed on vellum, quarto size, bound as a volume and secured by a patent lock.

The statement made by Lord Eshler, the master of the rolls, at the Guildhall banquet, that it was his last appearance, which is supposed to indicate that he intends to retire and the gossips have been busy over his successor. It is generally believed that Sir Richard Webster, the Attorney-General, will succeed Lord Eshler, and that Mr. R. B. Finlay, the solicitor-general, will be appointed attorney-general, though it is probable but for his remarks on Venezuela in his recent speech delivered at York, that Sir Edward Clarke, Q. C., would have been given Sir Richard's place.

Charles M. Speldon, the artist, is to be married on November 25 to Miss Grace Fitch, a native of Des Moines, Iowa, where they were children together.

The attendance during the past week has not been very large at many of the theatres, although some of the managers are congratulating themselves on the favorable opening of the winter season.

With the departure of Willard Tree, John Hare and Arthur Bourchier, all of whom will be seen in America this winter, London is deprived of some of its most popular actors. Interest already centres in the opening of Mr. Tree's new theatre, work on which is being carried forward in great haste. There is also much speculation as to America's criticism of the new play, "The States of the Mighty," which will then be produced for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Tree and company sail to-day on the American line steamship St. Louis, the business staff, with the exception of Mr. Shelton, having proceeded them by a week.

A Constantinople dipatch says: "Signor Pansa, Italian ambassador, had an audience last evening with the Sultan. He strongly insisted upon the execution of the proposed reforms. The Sultan declared they would be executed. Signor Pansa pointed out that it was not sufficient to publish reforms, it was necessary to carry them out. The Italian ambassador also insisted upon the punishment, but no mere court-martial, of Colonel Mazehan Rey, who is held responsible for the murder of Father Sulvor.

Lord Wolseley, the commander-in-chief of the forces, continues to make himself unpopular. At the Guildhall banquet he referred to the British navy, which, he said, "has not fought a battle in 69 years, while the army has done much."

Queen Victoria will arrive at Windsor Castle from Balmoral to-day accompanied by Princess Beatrice, the children of the latter and the children of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. Her Majesty will spend a few weeks at Windsor and then will go to Osborne for two months. The Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark will all be guests at Windsor during the coming week.

The "crusade" of the world inaugurated by Mrs. Tingley and her six American disciples, is meeting with remarkable success according to reports. Nearly all the great cities of Europe have been visited and in each it is said a flourishing theosophical organization has been left behind. There are now, it appears, societies in London, Dublin, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Paris, Amsterdam, Stockholm, Vienna and Athens, besides numerous lesser cities and in England, Scotland, Ireland, Sweden, Holland, Germany and Greece, there were enough societies to necessitate the formation of national factions. They attribute their success in Athens to the practical identity of teachings of theosophy with the philosophy of Plato and Pythagoras and also because the word "theosophy" was borrowed from the Greek "theosophia" meaning "divine wisdom."

PACIFIC CABLE CONFERENCE.

Evidence Given Yesterday by Mr. Sanford Fleming.

London, Nov. 13.—The Pacific cable conference sat from 11 o'clock to 2 o'clock yesterday at the colonial office. The main part of the time was taken up with the testimony of Sanford Fleming, who has been appointed technical advisor of the commission. He detailed the substance of his well known reports on the subject and answered a few questions regarding the statements made known. The cable commission has decided that hereafter, subject to the personal convenience of members, it will sit daily from 11 to 2 o'clock, and it also decided not to publish the names of the witnesses called for fear that pressure might be brought to bear upon them.

Fleming will cross-examine all the technical witnesses at the next session of the commercial session, which will take place on Monday.

JONES IN DUBLIN.

The Irish Spy Endeavored to Secure Information There.

Dublin, Nov. 14.—Jones, the Irish spy, who created a sensation yesterday in Bow street police court, when he testified against Richard J. Ivory the alleged Irish-American dynamiter, was in this city within a fortnight. He tried to establish relations of a sensational character with persons supposed to hold extreme political views. He also stated that two persons mentioned by him in his evidence as Irish-American agitators were really in the pay of the British Government.

ROOM FOR ECONOMY

Cost of Collecting Some of the Revenue in Excess of the Receipts.

Application for a Charter for a Railway to Kootenay Country.

Writ Issued for the Brandon Election — Sifton to Run.

Ottawa, Nov. 14. (Special)—The annual report of the inland revenue department for the inspection of weights and measures and gas and electric light, for the year ending the 30th of June last, was published and distributed to-day. The revenue for weights and measures was $37,132, compared with $39,483 for 1895. The expenditure was $69,896 as against $71,040 for the previous year. Commissioner Mialt in his report says the expenditure might be lessened without affecting the efficiency of the service by reducing the assistant inspectors. The revenue collected for gas and gas meters was $17,824, as compared with $17,202 for 1895. The expenses were $21,335, against $20,773 for 1895.

Edmonton has been made an outport of entry under Calgary, Rossland under Nelson, and Golden under New Westminster.

Alexander J. Mackenzie, of Hamilton, who was surveyor in the customs department, was superannuated in July, 1895 by the late government. He was superannuated against his will and applied to the present government for reinstatement and has been reinstated at his old salary, $1,500.

The department of militia has been notified of the arrival in Canada of a further consignment of Lee-Enfield rifles, a portion of the 40,000 stand ordered last winter. The twelve-pounder guns for field baterries may be expected any day. A number of modern guns, about twenty-two tons each, have been ordered for the Quebec fortifications.

The government has been officially notified of Col. Kitson's selection for the command of the Royal Military College.

Sir Oliver Mowat will accompany the tariff commission to Ontario points. They leave on Monday.

Application will be made at the next session of parliament for an act to incorporate the Crow's Nest Pass Railway Company for the construction of a railway from a point at or near Lethbridge in Alberta, through the Crow's Nest Pass to Rossland, British Columbia, with a branch line to Nelson on the Canadian Pacific and also for power to make traffic arrangements with other railways from Rossland through a pass in the Hope mountains to Victoria, B. C.

The statement of revenue for the four months ending October 21st, shows a betterment for the present year of $1,008,734 in finances when the increase in revenue and decrease in expenditure is considered. Last month's revenue was not up to October, 1895, and the expenditure was a little higher than for October, 1895.

The writ for Brandon has been issued. Hon. Mr. Sifton will be here on Monday and will run for Brandon as minister of the interior. Nomination takes place on the 27th and the election on December 4.

At a meeting of the cabinet yesterday afternoon an order-in-council was passed commuting the death sentence passed on Arthur Prentiss for the murder of Thomas Lingard, to imprisonment for life in Kingston penitentiary. Hon. Mr. Mowat presented his report in the case making the above recommendation on the ground that the young man was only eighteen years of age, and there was no premeditation, and that the firing of the fatal shot was the act of a headstrong and obdurate youth. Prentiss and Lingard had a quarrel over some rabbits. Lingard maintained that the rabbits, which were in the prisoner's possession did not belong to him. Prentiss insisted that they did and rather than give them up fired upon Lingard with his gun and killed him. The trouble between the two did not last over an hour or so. B. B. Osler, Q.C., had several interviews with the department of justice in regard to the case, insisting upon a new trial or commutation. The latter has now been granted. Prentiss, who is in Coburg jail waiting to be executed on December 16th, will be apprised of the result to-day through the sheriff of the county.

SILVER CLUBS.

To Keep Up Their Organization for Campaign of 1900.

Washington City, Nov. 13.—The national silver party will maintain permanent headquarters in Washington City, with a branch in Chicago. The 5,000 silver clubs belonging to the silver party are requested to maintain their organization. The silver party will be the party of 1900. Its platform is simple, being a money plank, and it will readily unite all friends of bimetallism.

CHILEAN CABINET.

Senor Fontella Will Not Form a New Ministry.

New York, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to the Herald from Valparaiso, Chile, says: "Senor Sanchez Fontella has given up the idea of forming a new ministry. His failure is due to the pressure brought to bear upon him by the president, who attempted to induce him to name only such persons as were his adherents. This a majority of the house of deputies objected to. The president has asked Elias Hernandez Albero to form a ministry.

JONES' IDENTITY

Was Well Known Among Members of New York Irish Societies.

Took the Clan Na Gael Oath But Did Not Intend to Keep It.

New York, Nov. 13.—The news of the production of an informer in the Ivory case in London to-day created quite a sensation and was productive of considerable comment in Irish circles in this city. Diligent inquiries among prominent Irish Nationalists failed to establish the identity of more than one man named Jones who ever had any connection with Irish movements in this city. The man's name is Thomas M. Jones who was a member of the Shamrock club and also one of the secretaries of the American Association. Jones held several positions in this city, but some time ago he started in the stationery business at 62 Amsterdam avenue, where he lived. He was frequently heard of and claimed to be a very advanced man. In this city he was recognized as a North of Ireland Irishman, but as the alliance was not sectarian in its principles, Jones' religion was no bar to his becoming a member. The last heard of him in this city was about ten weeks ago, when he left here telling his friends he was going to Ireland to secure some property which had been left to him through the death of a relative.

C. McNaughton, secretary of the National Alliance, when asked whether he knew Jones, replied: "I have known Thomas M. Jones for about three years. He was a member of the alliance and also of the association. I believe he was also a member of the Nally Club, which also belongs to the Alliance, but I think the cabled report has confounded the National Alliance with the United Irishmen. The books of the Alliance are open to the public, and the English government can send its representatives to examine them if it wishes to do so. The platform and principles of the Alliance, which were adopted at the Chicago convention last year, have been published, and there is no secrecy whatever in the organization. Jones frequently asked me to publish some articles which he had written for the Irish Republic, but they were too wild and I thought them idiotic in character. I threw his stuff in the waste basket, and I am sorry now I am not able to show a specimen.

London, Nov. 13.—When Ivory's counsel, in the Bow street police court today, asked Jones to give the initials of his name the witness refused, but the counsel insisted and also demanded to know the address of Jones in New York, whereupon the witness replied: "I fear for my safety and decline to give the particular location." The magistrate upheld Jones in his refusal, and then followed a dramatic incident. Counsel for the prisoner suddenly asked, "Did you take the oath of the Clan Na Gael?" Upon hearing this question Jones turned livid in pale, hesitated for a moment and then feebly answered "Yes." Ivory's counsel thereupon said, "You were intending at the time not to observe it?" To this question Jones replied, "Yes, I did not intend to observe it." Counsel thereupon said, "Have you any respect for the oath you have given here to-day?" "Yes," replied Jones in a weak voice.

This incident caused an impression upon all present in the court room.

SEATTLE LAND SWINDLE.

Poles Induced to Leave Their Homes in Texas.

Seattle, Wn., Nov. 13.—What looks like the greatest land swindle ever perpetrated in Washington came to light yesterday.

Fifteen men, five of them with their families, have come to Seattle from Bremond, Texas, to take up homesteads which Mr. Makowski, manager of the so-called "Washington Farming Land Company," said awaited them here. These people have found that the land company is a fake and that Makowski has vanished. He secured $600 from this party and their friends, yet expecting to come to live on the homesteads "reserved" for them. The families now here sold all their possessions in Texas to get money to pay their expenses in reaching Seattle, about $1,000 being paid out in railroad fare. Four of them started back to Texas to-night, and another lot will leave to-morrow.

Makowski would put an ad. in a Polish paper that circulates in Texas. The office of the company was given as 227 Poplar street, Seattle. There is no such company here. The advertisement said the company had a large tract of land, and that if any person desired to take up a homestead the company would locate him for $10, to be paid in advance. In a letter to an intending emigrant Makowski paints a beautiful picture of the home that could be secured for $10, and about $150 more to build a house and get your farm in condition." He told him work at good wages could be had any time, and advised that the recipient of the letter tell all his friends and get them to come.

From the story told Chief of Police Reid to-night by some of the victims, Makowski has operated his $10 certificate scheme extensively in Texas and Illinois, and must have cleaned up hundreds of dollars, as the police have learned that he has been receiving money orders galore.

SATOLLI'S REPORT.

On the Actions of Bishop Keane Late of the Catholic University.

London, Nov. 13.—Cardinal Satolli has presented to the Pope his report on religious factions in the United States. Although this document is destined not to be published, it is nevertheless perfectly well known what it contains. Cardinal Satolli makes a veritable accusation against Bishop Keane and the Catholic University of the United States at Washington. He accuses Bishop Keane of having in several public speeches uttered opinions which bordered on heresy, and says that to accord with Archbishop Ireland he endeavored to acclimatize a neocatholicism (New Catholicism) on American soil. Cardinal Satolli says the university at Washington had become the place where the most bold and risky theories were put forward. Fortunately, he says, the removal of Bishop Keane has cut short the evil at its root, but the bishop left behind dangerous disciples in the persons of numerous professors of this university, and the Cardinal advises the Pope to deprive them of their offices.

A GENERAL'S STORY

HE RELATES THE NARROW ESCAPE OF HIS DAUGHTER.

Weakened and Run Down by the Oppressive Climate of India She Returned to England—When Her Father Followed He Found Her in a Serious Condition.

From the Hampshire Independent.

There is nothing more interesting than the talk of our brave defenders, who have served their Queen and country in far distant lands. To talk with an Indian officer, hearing his reminiscences and adventures, is what those who have enjoyed it always apreciate. Consequently (writes a special reporter of the Hampshire Independent) I was delighted to receive instructions to interview Lieutenant-General Shaw, who has won his spurs in India, and is now living with his family, in honorable retirement, at St. Paul's Vicarage, Shanklin, Isle of Wight. I had grasped the bell-pull and given it one tug when the door opened, and the general stood before me. You knew he was a soldier at once. His manly, upright bearing, his smile, his pleasant voice—all told that you stood in the presence of one of Nature's gentlemen; but, alas, he held a time-table, and I felt that the interview must needs be short. However, he ushered me in, and at once put me at ease by his affable conversation.

"I am afraid," he said, "that you have come a long distance; but let me know the precise object of your visit."

I explained to the Geneal that I was most anxious, with his consent, to obtain some personal explanation as to the narrow escape I had heard one of his daughters had recently experienced.

At that he brightened visibly. "You must know," he said, "I'm just a bit of an enthusiast on this point; but the tale is very short. My daughter came home from India, and when I joined her in London I found her ill in bed. She had rheumatic and neuralgic pains; she was perfectly bloodless, listless and in a generally weak and prostrate condition. A doctor was seen, but she remained absolutely colorless, was in great wretchedness and suffering from anaemia or bloodlessness. She had a kind of fever, nervous headache and other pains. Well, I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. My daughter took some and the first box had a marvellous effect. She regained her color, lost her pains, and became altogether different. She had quite a glow upon her. She went on taking the pills and I am glad to tell you that she recovered completely. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all with whom I came in contact, and all who take them derive great benefit therefrom.

"I have a sister at Jersey, and she has taken them for a very long time, and has always recommended them to other people, and found them to do a great deal of good to all to whom she has recommended them; and I, myself, when I have heard of people being ill, have taken them or sent them some of these pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills directly enrich and purify the blood, and thus it is that they are so famous for the cure of anaemia, rheumatism, scrofula, chronic erysipelas, and restore pale and sallow complexions to the glow of health. They are also a splendid nerve and spinal tonic, and have cured many cases of paralysis, locomotor ataxia, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, and nervous headache. A specific for all the troubles of the female, and in men cure all cases arising from worry, overwork, or indiscretions of living.

BRITAIN NOT INTERESTED.

In the Reported Trouble Between America and Spain.

London, Nov. 14.—The officials of the foreign office deny that there is any truth in the story published by the New York papers that the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote, had tendered the good offices of Britain with a view of averting trouble between the United States and Spain. The officials say that beyond newspaper rumors they have no knowledge of any difficulty between the United States and Spain.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

MOVED TO 'FRISCO.

North American Company Removes Their Offices From Seattle.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—The North American Transportation & Trading Company of Chicago will establish its Pacific coast agency in this city on the first of the coming year and proposes to extend its business on the Yukon river and throughout Alaska generally. Captain William Kidston, well and favorably known in this city, has been appointed agent for the company. The company is composed of the Wears and Cudahays of Chicago and has been engaged in trading in Alaska for years. Two supply stores have been established on the Yukon river and two large stern wheeler steamers will ply on its waters. The Pacific coast agency is now at Seattle and the transfer to San Francisco means considerable to the water front of this city. Up to five years ago the Alaska Commercial Company enjoyed a monopoly of the Alaskan trade, but the continued increase of the territory's population has opened the way to other companies.

ACHILLE TOMASI INSANE.

Well Known Musical Director Under Care of Doctors.

New York, Nov. 14.—An inquiry into the mental condition of Achille Tomasi is to be made by Dr. Flint and a sheriff's jury by order of the supreme court. Signor Tomasi, who is 50 years of age, has been well known in opera circles for years as a musical director. Signor Tomasi has been acting strangely for two months. On October 12, while he was stopping at the Broadway Central hotel, he went to Lawyer Erlanger and told him he had committed some crime and he was being shadowed by detectives. The lawyer suggested that he surrender but Tomasi would not. He went to live at Taylor's hotel, Jersey City, on the advice of the lawyer. Tomasi insisted that he was still being pursued and the lawyer got him quarters at the Hotel Lincoln in Jersey City.

Mr. Erlanger says he became convinced that Tomasi had not committed any crime and that he was insane, and that on October 2 he took him to Bellevue hospital to be examined. On the certificate of Drs. Wildman and Fitch Justice MacLean committed him to the Manhattan state hospital.

HOME FOR ACTRESSES.

Corinne Makes Provision for One in Her Will.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Corinne, the actress, now playing at the Columbia theatre in this city, executed her will yesterday. By its terms her real estate, her jewelry, every costume and every bit of her personal property will be sold for what it will bring. The lump sum should aggregate $750,000, and with it a good sized tract of land is to be purchased just outside New York. Upon this the "Corinne Home for the Aged and Unemployed Actresses" will be built and future generations of poor and discouraged women will rise up and call the dancer with the flashing teeth blessed.

Corinne has chosen two eastern men of unimpeachable reputation to be the trustees of the institution, and she has planned many details in advance. Her idea is that the home should be open, so that actresses can go or come as their necessities dictate. All religions and nationalities will be welcome. The home will be sufficiently endowed, but made, so far as possible, self-supporting by the means of gardens and sewing that the women may do. Corinne wants it to be in all senses a home, and her idea is to save girls who cannot find employment from drifting into sin. She wants to extend a helping hand until they can struggle back to their feet again.

VENEZUELA SATISFIED.

With the Arrangement between Great Britain and America.

New York, Nov. 13.—A special to the Herald from Caracas, Venezuela, says: Details of the proposed settlement of the boundary dispute between Venezuela and Great Britain through the friendly intervention of the United States government have reached this city and appear to give general satisfaction. After careful inquiry among the leading officials, it appears that the Venezuelan government is disposed to settle the question on the lines indicated in the agreement between the United States and Great Britain without haggling over minor points. The agreement that title shall be determined on the occupany of territory for fifty years is regarded by prominent Venesuelans as a happy solution of the question. Some demagogues may oppose it, but the people at large will offer no opposition to this basis of settlement. Minister Andrade, who represents Venezuela at Washington, has communicated the details of the agreement to his government and asked President Crespo's cabinet whether it will agree to the settlement on the basis of occupancy for fifty years. Minister of Foreign Affairs Rojas is unusually reticent in regard to the affair, but it is believed the government is well pleased with the prospect of an early settlement of the boundary dispute.

BOLT AND NUT COMBINE.

Eastern Manufacturers Form a Combination to Raise Prices.

Pittsburg, Nov. 12.—The Commercial Gazette says: After many futile attempts, the bolt and nut manufacturers of the country will organize a combination better known as a selling pool. Joshua H. Parks, of Boston, one of the shrewdest and ablest financiers of modern times, is the organizer and chief mover of the combination. In spite of the secrecy with which the meeting is surrounded the story came to the surface. About 30 firms were represented at the Monongahela House gathering. The preliminary arrangements for a selling pool were completed, and it needs but the ratification of those interested to close the deal, placing the output and price of all nuts and bolts manufactured in the country in the hands of one man, a commissioner.

Despite the headway made at the meeting one of the manufacturers said that an undercurrent existed which delayed organization. This can be explained by the fact that the manufacturers are suspicious of each other, and many have sent clerks to represent them so as not to be bound too tightly by agreements. The allotment allowed each manufacturer is also a subject of dispute, and the most difficult to settle. When this is completed the pool will be ready for business.

The first step will be to advance the price.

PUGET SOUND FORTS.

Site Secured by Government at Entrance to the Sound.

Port Townsend, Nov. 13.—The government has notified Mrs. George Sterrett that it will accept her offer to sell 160 acres of land adjoining the site for fortifications on Point Wilson, and on receipt of the deed will forward $3000. Negotiations are pending for the purchase of other property on Points Marrowstone, Admiralty and Wilson.

This action taken in connection with Gen. Miles' recommendation would indicate that the work of building the fortifications would soon commence.

AUCTION SALES.

Notice of Sale

The British Columbia Paper Manufacturing Company, Limited.

IN LIQUIDATION.

Notice is hereby that under and by virtue of the authority of an order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, made on the 9th day of November, 1896, by the Hon. Mr. Justice Walkem, I will sell, subject to the approval of one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, all the real and personal property (other than book debts and other choses in action) of the said British Columbia Paper Manufacturing Company, Ltd., subject only to the mortgagee's charge upon same.

The said property consists chiefly of the equity of redemption in part (16 acres) of Section VII., Alberni district, British Columbia, together with a paper mill and saw mill erected upon the same, and also of the plant machinery and tools, etc., used in connection therewith.

The mortgage charge upon the same is $35,000, with interest upon the same from the thirtieth day of September, 1896, to the date of sale, together with the costs of foreclosure proceedings to the said date of sale, less a rebate of $50.00 per month from the said 30th September to such date.

This is a good opportunity for investors, as the saw mill is in good running order, and the rapid development of the mines in Alberni district ensures a very ready market for all the lumber that can be cut.

There is a good water power on the site, a plentiful supply of timber, including cotton wood in the vicinity, and with the addition of some modern machinery, it is believed that the manufacture of paper can be carried on at the lowest possible cost.

Above sale will be made at public auction, at the auction rooms of William T. Hardaker, Douglas street, Victoria, British Columbia, on Wednesday, the 16th day of December next, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Further particulars may be obtained from the undersigned, at his office or at the office of Messrs Fell & Gregory, Board of Trade Building, Bastion Square, Victoria, B. C.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

Of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Opened at St. Louis.

Miss Francis E. Willard Presides and Delivers the Annual Address.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 13.—The 23rd annual convention of the W. C. T. U. opened to-day with a greater attendance than any one previously held. At least 500 accredited delegates were present and as many more visitors from every portion of the country. Among the distinguished workers in philanthropy in attendance were Miss Agnes Hock of England, secretary of the world's W. C. T. U.; Miss Maud Booth, of the American Volunteers; Mrs. Gwyneth Vaughan of Wales, Miss Rebecca Krikorian of Armenia, secretary of the Armenian relief committee of New York. Three sessions a day for five days will be held.

The report of the treasurer, Helen M. Baker, of Illinois, stated that the receipts, notwithstanding the hard times, were larger than for several previous years. While many states haave made a gain in membership, only seven had added over 500 and would share in the "Benefit Night." These were Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, Michigan and Kentucky. Total receipts were $27,706, expenditures $24,115, leaving a balance of $3592. The report of the corresponding secretary, Miss Catherine Lent Stevenson, of Massachusetts, showed that during the year 1705 new unions had organized, making a gain in membership of 15,888. Mary F. Lovell, of Pennsylvania, superintendent of the Department of Mercy, reported 10,547 children received into the Band of Mercy.

Miss Frances E. Willard, national president, called the gathering to order. She was received with a salute of waving handkerchiefs. Miss Willard said that her annual address was partly prepared when the call came to work for the Armenian refugees at Marseilles. It had been impossible for her to complete the message. She therefore gave a familiar talk. Mention was made of the previous convention held here in 1884, and Miss Willard added: "We have marched far since then. Alignment of parties have changed, the labor movement has taken on proportions so vast that no one speaks lightly of it any more. The people are forcing their way to the front, misguided and often making pitiful paths in the wilderness; following false lights and relegating the fight for a clear brain to the Spartan band of prohibitionists, when, if labor would win, it must make the temperance reform the ark of God to be borne in the very van of its swift gathering body. In 1892 some of us sat up all night with the committee on resolutions of the great labor convention, with its thousand delegates, pleading with them to put prohibition and a home protection plank in their platform, and they would not."

The speaker said that prohibition in politics has been, and is to be, an embodied protest of the home against the saloon. But owing to the great controversy concerning the free coinage of silver this party, like every other, was split in twain. Miss Willard touched on the work done for temperance in several states; then spoke of the Armenian and the excellent work done there by Mrs. Stevens of Maine, Mrs. Fessenden and Miss Blackwell of Massachusetts, and the Armenian relief committees of the Salvation Army. She stated that the World's W. C. T. U. intended to take up work for the Armenians as an important part of its endeavor. They would probably found a colony in Cyprus for women and children.

HAPPINESS.

After Years of Torture.

A Wonderful Shiloh, Ont.

Paine's Celery Compound Life-Saving, Life-Giving and Victorious.

Does Paine's Celery Compound cure rheumatism? Ten thousand voices in Canada, in clear and trumpet-like tones, answer, "Yes, it cures every time!"

Mr. J. Beechinor, of Shiloh, Ont., after years of suffering and many a failure with doctors and patent medicines, has just been cured by Paine's Celery Compound. His story is brief and to the point; he says:

"For five years I suffered from sciatica and rheumatism, at times being so bad that I could not walk or put my hand to my mouth. If I attempted to do any work I would be crippled for weeks. I took medical treatment, patent medicines, Turkish and mineral baths, but all failed to meet my case. Some time ago I tried Paine's Celery Compound, and after using six bottles I feel like a new man, and can do a hard day's work and feel none the worse for it. I have also gained in weight and can say I am permanently cured."

Are you suffering reader, willing to make use of Paine's Celery Compound, after the strong statement of Mr. Beechinor? If this marvellous cure is not sufficient to implant faith in your soul, we feel you will never be cured.

If, in addition to Mr. Beechinor's strong letter we tell you that Paine's Celery Compound is a guaranteed cure, will you then have the necessary faith to enable you to give the medicine an honest trial? It has cured hundreds of cases worse than yours it will truly and surely meet your case.

CANADIAN SUCCESS RECOGNIZED ABROAD

An American Company Organized With Offices at Buffalo.

A MILLIONAIRE BANKER

At the Head of the New Company—The Fame Earned by Dodd's Kidney Pills in Canada Wins the Confidence and Capital Necessary for a Solid Syndicate.

At a time when most business men are resting on their oars, pending the the result of the election, it is interesting to report the details of a new organization that promises to enlarge Buffalo's reputation as a business centre, and bring many thousands of dollars here for local distribution. This has reference to the Dodds Medicine Company, with a suite of offices in the Ellicott Square Building, substantial business men in control, and ample capital at its back. Nothing of the kind in recent years begins to equal the importance of such a business in its relations to the community. The new company has been organized for the manufacture of Dodds Kidney Pills, a remedy that has won fame and fortune over in Canada, and that comes to the United States in response to a well defined demand. There is nothing fictitious about the preparation and nothing doubtful about its results. It is claimed to be a supreme and complete triumph, backed by thousands of legitimate testimonials and indorsed by men and women of more than average intelligence. Because it comes from Canada, it is none the less a triumph. It has won its spurs over there.

There is no more progressive business in Buffalo than the big World's Dispensary, and there is every reason to anticipate smaller activity in connection with the manufacture of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Every condition fully warrants it. The new company represents men of large experience and business ability, with the Hon. F. G. Babcock of Hornellsville as president; Mr. J. A. McKee of Toronto, as vice-president, and Mr. Blinn Yates as secretary and treasurer. Mr. Babcock is president of the Bank of Hornellsville, owner of the famous Babcock Stock Farms, once the home of the mighty Smuggler, and the present home of the beautiful stallion Voodoo, for which Mr. Babcock paid $24,000, when it was about 21 months old, and about 60 more of the finest blooded stock in the country. Mr. Babcock is a man of vast business interests, and one who has been wonderfully successful in everything he has undertaken. The Elmira Telegram calls him "a wealthy and public-spirited citizen and just the kind of a man to make a place famous and prosperous." The development of this new business will give him a direct interest in the growth and prosperity of Buffalo, and will turn to our advantage in more ways than one. Mr. McKee is president of the Dodds Medicine Company of Canada, whose energy and enterprise have made Dodd's Kidney Pills famous throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion. Mr. Blinn Yates is manager of the Buffalo office of the Charles H. Fuller's Newspaper and Magazine Advertising Agency of Chicago and New York, and has recently removed here from New York City.

The new business starts out under the most favorable auspices, with no possible question as to its success and with every intention of making things hum. It is easy to see that Buffalo is fortunate in being made headquarters for the States. It means steady work for scores of people, and no end of free advertising for the city.

NORTHERN PACIFIC CLAIMS.

Arrangements for the Re-organization of the Company.

Milwaukee, Nov. 13.—The last claim against the old Northern Pacific Railroad Company has been filed with Master Carey, and filing of objections will at once begin and continue until the first Monday in January. Mr. Carey said today that the total amount of claims against the corporation is over $100,000,000. The principal claim is by the Northern Pacific company, the re-organized body which owns all the bonds. This claim is for $97,740,650.30, which amount is due on a mortgage under which the bonds and stocks are issued. The company, in claiming this amount, has not allowed anything for the procedure of the sales of the property, for the receiverships and all the expenses that have been connected with them. Another large claim is that of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern, one of the leased lines, for over $6,000,000. Then come the claims of about 100 attorneys, agents and commission men of firms who sold supplies to the company and others.

The proceeds of the sale of the property last summer aggregate $19,000,000 in round figures. To these assets are added about 3,000,000 acres of land not covered by mortgages. These lands are in Minnesota and North Dakota.

Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—The Brandon Liberal committee have reported favorably on the school terms of settlement as submitted to them by Attorney-General Sifton and endorsed Mr. Sifton as their candidate. He will leave for Ottawa shortly to be sworn in as minister of the interior.

The Ogilvies will shortly send two special train loads of flour from Winnipeg for Australia.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—Minister Tarte has written a letter to Le Cultivateur in which he states that with profound sorrow he saw that the French community of Manitoba is losing strength every day. There are 51 Catholic schools, he points out, now closed, and the number of separate schools is thirty, almost equal to that of the schools which operate under the public school act. Of these thirty it is no exaggeration to say that half are in a grave state of inferiority. In other words, more than one-half the young Catholic generation at this moment is deprived of education. The English population have magnificent schools and a complete system of education, and their children consequently are better fitted for the battle of life. He was confident that in the near future the Catholic and French population would walk side by side with other nationalities in the path of instruction and intellectual progress, and that the 50 schoolhouses closed to-day would receive under their roofs hundreds of children who now stagnate in ignorance.

Both parties are actively preparing for the provincial elections, which cannot be very far off.

A letter has been received from the secretary who accompanied Li Hung Chang on his recent tour through Canada, expressing on behalf of His Excellency entire satisfaction with the arrangements on board R. M. S. Empress of China while crossing the Pacific Ocean, and thanking the officials for their thoughtful study of their comforts and their high abilities in fulfilling their manifold duties.

Rev. Canon Thorneloe, of Sherbrooke, announced his acceptance of the bishopric of Algoma at this morning's session of the synod. His consecration will take place either in Christ Church cathedral here, in Quebec, or in his own church at Sherbrooke.

Counsel for Grenier, indicted by the grand jury for criminally libelling Hon. Mr. Tarte, this morning renewed the application made a few days ago that a date be set for the trial, but this was denied. The request that a second panel of jurors be summoned, as the present one expires early next week, was also refused. There is no chance now of a trial taking place until March.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—Judge Loranger, in the supreme court, gave judgment declaring illegal the early closing law, which, when adopted by municipalities, forces dry goods, grocery and other shops to close at 8 o'clock each night.

"77" FOR COLDS

Can be Trusted.

You can trust an article that everybody speaks well of, and every one has a kind word for Seventy-seven.

One has been cured of a Cold.

Another of Grip.

A third of Catarrh.

And still another of Influenza.

It is so with all the ills that colds cause.

Mrs. J. Sharks, 175 W. 95th St., New York City: "We have used your remedies for years, and have always found them to do just what you claim. '77' for Colds has proved a blessing, as also other of your Specifics which we have found necessary to use. I cannot praise them too highly."

E. E. Pierce, Pastor of Church of Christ, Clarion, Ia., writes: "'77' has cured a bad Cold in my wife, which I have been treating for some time, and she has only used about one-fourth of a bottle."

Miss May Ulrich, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says she is subject to attacks of Grippe whenever she takes a slight Cold, but now uses "77," "and I must say it does help me wonderfully."

FEELING CONFIDENT.

Perhaps after all the Mail and Empire is not so far wrong in its announcement that an extensive revival of business is to be expected, "partly as a consequence of the general conditions being more favorable than for many years past," though to those who have accepted the past teachings of the Mail and Empire and all the other Tory organs the announcement must come as a surprise. From day to day statements appear in eastern papers that give support to the Mail's assertion. Not long ago the Times published a collection of these, and already another one has made its appearance. The prophets of evil must take much satisfaction out of such a group of items as the following:

A four-storey-high manufactory, 200 by 70 feet, is about to be established at St. Jerome, Que., for the purpose of manufacturing rubber goods.

The McMillan & Haynes Company, St. Catharines, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $30,000, to manufacture saws, axes, scythes, etc.

A. R. Burrows, of Guelph, proposes to establish a factory in Galt to manufacture carpet, chenille, etc.

The Canadian Manufacturer says that the Granby, Que., last works are making an addition to their buildings and adding two machines to their plants, having secured a considerable United States contract, which makes the addition necessary.

The new pulp mill of the Sault Ste. Marie Pulp and Paper Company is expected to be running by about the beginning of the new year. Then the company will have two mills in operation, capable of turning out daily 200 tons dry weight.

Harvie & Co., box manufacturers, Toronto, will rebuild on the Esplanade. Their new factory will be much larger than that which was burned down.

James King & Co., Sarnia, have rebuilt their flouring mill, recently burned down. The new structure is of brick and stone, four storeys high.

Midland, Ont., is soon to have a large pulp mill. So is Sturgeon Falls, Ont.

The Ottawa Specialty Manufacturing Company, Ottawa, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $45,000, to manufacture wooden and metal ware, etc.

Harlow & Kempton, Milton, have added to their planing factory.

A new hub and spoke factory at Sarnia is nearing completion. It will employ 25 men.

The Sydenham Glass Company's Works, at Wallaceburg, are running full blast, and the furnaces are kept burning night and day in order to fill orders.

The people of Owen Sound are extending their city's electric lighting system. James McLauchlin & Sons, biscuit manufacturers, and the North American Bent Chair Co., of Owen Sound, are adding to their factories, in order to increase their output. Mr. McLauchlin, it may be remembered, was the N.P. candidate in North Grey.

The Knechtel Furniture Co., of Hanover, are building an addition to their already extensive premises. The new building of brick, 50 by 100 feet, will be three storeys in height.

New companies incorporated in Ontario are the Queen City Oil Company, limited, capital $200,000; and the Wortman & Ward Manufacturing Co., limited, capital $80,000, to carry on a foundry business.

One of the worst cases of political hysteria we have met with is that of the News-Advertiser, which raves over the school question in this fashion:

"A matter which concerns the whole Dominion; which involves great constitutional and legal questions—as Mr. Laurier and his party do not deny; which in its adjustment will directly affect the sentiments and interests of a large number of the people of Manitoba and indirectly those of a not inconsiderable section of the population of the whole country, is now being dealt with—by whom? By those upon the settlement proper'y devolves—the federal and provincial governments, subject, of course, to any confirmation which may be necessary from the Dominion or provincial legislature? Certainly not, but by Mr. Sifton and a mere handful of his political supporters in the constituency of Brandon."

All this because Mr. Sifton asked the Brandon electors whether they would accept him as a candidate for parliament in presence of the settlement arranged. A rational person would say that this was all the Brandon men had to decide, and that they were not called upon to give judgment for either the country or the province. Much grief has evidently disturbed the News-Advertiser's mental equilibrium.

The Canadian Gazette says: "Canadian journals seem to be somewhat affected by the 'made in Germany' scare, which has been turned to such strange uses in this country. Let them beware of the alarmists. England still holds her own in trade as in other matters. The Daily News takes the most unfavorable periods for comparison, and finds that beween the inflated times of 1874 and the lean and hungry quinquennial ending 1894 the diminution in the value of what Germany took from Great Britain did not alter her share of total British exports by half of one per cent. Germany's share of total British exports in 1874 period was 11.1 per cent., and in the 1894 period it was 10.8. And as for the British import trade, Germany has not increased her share by quite 1 per cent., while there is a notable expansion in British Colonial trade." Our London contemporary is in its turn making a slight mistake. The Canadian journals that affect to be alarmed over Britain's trade prospects are not really alarmed but are indulging in a little hypocritical pretence for the supposed benefit of the N.P.

CAPT. DELOUCHEY'S CASE.

To the Editor:—I observe in your issue of the 12th inst., a report concerning me which is incorrect. The police reported that I was under the influence of liquor on the Monday night on which the occurrence took place, and that I did not know where I was. I acknowledge that I did not know the name of the street, but I know now it was Johnson street. I deny emphatically that I was under the influence of liquor on that occasion.

Some sealers reported that on the night in question I was having a high old time of it and that I hurt my hand in a row. I defy those sealers to come forward and show where I got my hand cut. I shall thank you for publishing this contradiction. W. DELOUCHEY.

TO HEAR BY HANDS.

By means of an invention of Dr. Thomas McKendrick, a noted expert in electro-thereutics of Glasgow, Scotland, it is possible for the deaf to hear music. To accomplish it the deaf person must dip his hands into a tub of water. A phonograph is used for supplying the music. The sound waves are directed to a regular telephone transmitter. The transmitter connects with a series of batteries under the tub, connecting therewith. The harmony is carried to the brain through the hands.

The principle on which Dr. McKendrick based his idea is one which is but little understood. Water is one of the best conductors of electricity known. Dr. William Harvey King, an electro-therapeutical expert of New York, who has studied Dr. McKendrick's discovery, said in the New York Herald a few days ago that the great difficulty which had always baffled experimenters in this line was that the batteries used did not produce the perfect rhythmical vibrations necessary.

"We have made this experiment with the Faradic battery," said Dr. King, "but, to speak technically for a moment, the long period of cessation between the 'make' and the 'break' destroys the rhythm, and consequently the sensation is not transmitted. The European expert has prepared a special battery, the secret of which he still retains."

The process by which the rhythm of music is transferred through the nerves to the nerve center of the brain is clearly described by Dr. King.

"If you have ever been aboard a small steam vessel which has been propelled at a high rate of speed by machinery of high horse power," said Dr. King, "you have no doubt felt the unbroken or rhythmical vibrations going through the body of the craft. Now a deaf person, under the conditions cited, hears these vibrations as well as one whose auditory nerves are perfectly normal. While the sensation of listening to the music is accomplished on the same general principle as I have just described the effect on the deaf would be much more striking and agreeable.

"Take for instance, a person who has been deaf from birth. He immerses his hands in the prepared water connected with the phonograph. The rhythm of the music is conducted by the nerves locally affected to the fissure Rolando in the brain, and the sensation is one of pleasure. Greater still is the pleasure experienced by one who has at one time had normal hearing and who becomes deaf from some cause or another. If the tune selected is one with which the subject has been familiar, he may easily follow the varying changes of the music, and by the aid of his imagination, which in the deaf is unusually acute, he can thus enjoy the oddly conducted concert almost as thoroughly as if his hearing was normal."

While the new system of making the deaf hear is yet in its infancy, Dr. King says that scientists all over the world, himself included, are working untiringly with the electrical agent, and are sanguine of even greater success than has already been attained.

PIGMIES IN GUIANA.

It is reported through Science that an American commercial traveller in Guiana has recently discovered in that country villages inhabited by little people, averaging only about four feet and a half in height. Humboldt, when in South America many years ago, heard stories of dwarfs living in those regions, but he saw none, and seems to have given little credit to the reports about them that reached his ears. It will be remembered that Stanley, in his last expedition in Africa, found communities of dwarfs whose existence had also been previously reported, but generally doubted.

A LIVING HYPNOTIC CORPSE.

Yesterday at the Chester police court Leon Vint, professor of hypnotism, was summoned for using threats toward a commercial traveler named Nicholson. The defendant last week gave a series of entertainments of hypnotism, thought reading and kindred subjects, the principal attraction being the placing of the man in a trance on Monday night to be awakened on Saturday night. The man was put in a casket and the public were admitted to view at all hours on the payment of 6d. The complainant and other companions, numbering about a dozen, went to view the man, taking with them a bottle of whiskey and a pack of cards, their idea being to watch him from 11 o'clock Thursday night until 2 in the morning, as they believed the affair to be a fraud. They denied that they used any cruelty to the "corpse" but admitted that one of them, named Fraser, sang various comic songs in order to force a laugh from him. The whiskey was spirited away before it was half consumed, most of them getting none. The man in the casket had what the attendant called a fit soon after the watch began, and struck Fraser on the face, but the attendants quieted him, and the "corpse revivers," as the watching party were termed, continued to play halfpenny "nap" for some two hours. Then the man in the trance jumped out of the case, saying that he had been listening to their nonsense for two hours and had had quite enough of it. He commenced to spar, and threatened to knock a man named Hull, the smallest of the lot, through the wall. One of the biggest of the visitors made threats in return, but just then the "corpse" noticing the presence of Police Officer Davies, sprang back into the casket and "became dead again." Dr. Vint arrived at this point, and producing a revolver, threatened to shoot, and pointed the weapon at the complainant. For the defendant it was stated that the visitors were disorderly, half of them intoxicated, and that they stuck pins into the man, burnt his nose with cigar ends and otherwise cruely ill-treated him A toy cigar-cutter, shaped like a revolver, was exhibited as the article carried by Dr. Vint. After several hours' hearing the bench ordered the defendant to give security in £20 to keep the peace for three months and to pay all costs. —London Telegraph.

EVEN WITH THE "DUN."

The lawyer had won an important case for the man, says the Chicago Tribune. He had dabbled in stocks of one kind and another, and, hard luck having overtaken him, he had bolstered up his vanishing fortunes with $50,000 of other people's money.

But the other people had troubles of their own. They had wants that needed catering to, and when they found that the dealer in stocks had invested their means of subsistence in an enterprise that would benefit no one but himself they arose with a howl of righteous indignation and brought a suit for damages.

This was where the lawyer had his chance. He knew the man was guilty, and he told him so, but for all that he cleared him. He charged a pretty big fee, $3,000 being a conservative estimate of the value of his services. The man paid him $2,500 in cash and promised to give him the other $500 a month or two later. That was more than three years ago. The lawyer patiently waited on his client for a year, and then put the matter in the hands of a collector. In the course of two years the collector gathered in $400, and then, as his salary was more than eating up the amount collected, the lawyer took the case from his hands and gave it to the office boy. As an incentive to energetic work he said:

"Jimmie, there is $100 coming to me from Mr. ———. If you can get anything out of him I'll give you half of it."

Jimmie's eyes snapped, and he went to work. He labored diligently for three months. Every morning at 11 o'clock he would go into the office and present his employer's claim, and so run the gamut of the other five working days, and then repeat the procedure the succeeding week. The man got mad about it at first and threatened to throw the boy out of the office, but he finally thought better of it and contented himself with turning Jimmie away with some stinging rebuke.

Jimmie kept up the daily siege till last Thursday. Then he was sick and could not come down town. About two o'clock the lawyer was in his private office holding a consultation with two clients when there came an imperative rat-a-tat-tat on his door. He bade the visitor enter, and a head, half concealed by a shock of bushy red hair, was thrust into the room.

"Please, sir," said a high-keyed voice, "I'm from Mr. ———, an' he wants to know why your boy ain't been over to-day to dun 'im for that $100 he owes you."

A BIG ORDER FOR BEER.

Japanese merchants at Chemulpo, in the kingdom of Corea, were very much surprised recently when the King ordered 30,000 bottles of beer in one lot. The entire Japanese colony was not prepared for such a sudden and extensive order of beer, and they put their heads together, wondering whether it was the court or the bodyguard of the King who had suddenly developed such a gigantic thirst. A cable was immediately dispatched to Japan and the beer ordered to be shipped at once, so that it might be delivered to the royal master of the house in due time. The beer arrived promptly, and at the same time the explanation of the conundrum was given to the Japanese, for almost on the same day a Russian man-of-war arrived there and the entire crew were invited to be the guests of the King of Corea, who thus showed his gratitude to the Russians for the shelter accorded him at the Russian Embassy during the recent revolutionary disturbances.

The 300 marines on board were very agreeably surprised when his royal highness sent 30,000 bottles of good Japanese beer on board—that is, 100 bottles per man—enough liquor to thoroughly celebrate the Russo-Corean alliance.

SUDDEN DEATH FROM HEART DISEASE

The Old, Old Story Repeated—The Newspapers Tell It Daily. Yet Heart Disease Is Curable—James Allen of St. Stephen, N. B., Tells How Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Made Him a New Man—Parliamentarians at Ottawa Bear Universal Testimony to the Effectiveness of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

The newspapers every day shock us with notices of sudden deaths from heart disease, but if those who are troubled in this way would use Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart it would quickly banish the disease and make life as safe to them as it is to-day uncertain. James Allen, of St. Stephen, N. B., says: "In 1895 I was troubled very much with severe palpitation of the heart and with a pain in my side. My breath was very short and with the least exertion I became prostrated. I was attended by a physician for a long time. When in considerable distress I visited the local drug store, and my attention was drawn to Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. I obtained a bottle—one dose gave relief—and to-day I am a sound man, due solely to the use of a few bottles of this remedy."

From fifty to one hundred parliamentarians, including the most prominent men at Ottawa, the leading clergymen of the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Episcopalian and Roman Catholic churches, together with laymen innumerable, all over the Dominion, have testified over their own signatures to the effective character of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. This obnoxious and dangerous disease, paving the way to so many pulmonary troubles, finds a sure and pleasant cure in this remedy. It relieves in a few minutes.

Mr. Hutcheson, who swore that he heard the accused say during the trial of that case that the bill of sale between Tomlin Ellwell and he was in Snohomish, and Frank Adamas, who said he heard accused say in the police court in September that he had the bill of sale in his possession, having found it among his papers at the bank in Snohomish. Adams, under cross-examination of Mr. George Powell, who appeared for the defense, said that Lawry had swindled him and he was guaranteeing the costs of the case now in the supreme court. The case was then, Mr. Adams being still under the cross-examination of Mr. Powell, adjourned until 2:30 this afternoon.

Doings in Marine Circles During the Past Twenty-Four Hours.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Never since the days of '49 has the harbor been so crowded as it is at present. All classes of vessels are here and seven out of every ten are seeking a charter. Many of them are in ballast, and some have brought coal from Australia for a nominal sum in order to make expenses. All the captains are excited over the advance in wheat and some of the new arrivals are holding out for a 35-shilling rate to "Cork for orders." A few days ago the disengaged tonnage in port aggregated 68,535 tons, while in 1895 it was only 27,664 tons. At the same time the engaged tonnage was 103,828, while in 1895 it was only 92,415. Since the above figures were made up quite a number of vessels from foreign ports have arrived, and in consequence the disengaged list has been largely increased.

Hoquiam, Wash., Nov. 13.—Captain Frazer, of the wrecked British bark Zinita, now has hopes of saving the vessel. At high tide she moved with the action of the water, first one end, then the other, and swung so that she now lies bow on to the sea. He denies that she has made any water or is likely to, and thinks that if the weather is fair he can work seaward with anchors. The vessel is flat-bottomed, and now only five feet deep in the sand. Captain Frazer will begin at once to clear the rigging of the lower masts, and claims that he can lighten the vessel so that she will draw but seven feet of water.

To-morrow evening the C.P.N. Co's steamer Danube will sail for Naas river and way ports with a considerable quantity of freight and a large number of passengers. Among those going north are A. Stuart Robertson, R. Tennant, W. Leigh, W. Noel, J. Jardine, Rev. Mr and Mrs. Raley and Miss Long. The Tees will leave for the West Coast to-morrow evening. Her passenger list includes Mr. Wilkinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. Spain and J. L. Penney.

The Walla Walla left for San Francisco last evening with the following Victoria passengers on board: Mrs. Duel, Miss F. Street, Mrs. C. M. Kitchon, J. Macleod, B. Jenkins, C. Little, Miss Boydenane and Mrs. Endrigat.

Port Townsend, Nov. 13.—The damaged cargo of the steamer Umatilla has been partly sold at auction and realized very high prices. The canned goods, the tins of which were rusted, averaged over $1.25 a case.

Hon. Mr. Tarte, minister of public works, will arrive here on Wednesday evening, spending the balance of the week in the city. On Monday following he goes to Nanaimo.

The banquet to Hon. Mr. Tarte will be held either on Thursday or Friday evening at the Driard, but the date will be announced on Monday. Tickets can be procured after Monday evening from any members of the committee or at the Times office. The event will not be a party affair and any person who wishes to attend can do so by obtaining an admission ticket, the price of which will be placed as low as possible.

FLOODS AT SOOKE.

Heavy Rains and More Bridges Carried Away.

Reports from Sooke are that the rivers are running at a tremendous rate. Two bridges are washed away and traffic suspended. Three hundred yards of telegraph wire were carried away but Mr. Gordon managed to restore communication to Otter Point this afternoon. At 3 o'clock Otter Point reported a fierce westerly gale accompanied by torrents of rain sweeping up the straits. Muir creek bridge has also gone and traffic is stopped. This bridge was put in last year at a heavy cost.

SLAVES OF CEYLON TEA TRADE.

A great deal of hard and ill-paid work goes to the producing and preparation of tea for the market. Edward Carpenter says that the coolies of Ceylon are unfortunate. They go over in gangs from the mainland of India—men women and children. An agent is sent to conduct them to their destination, and on their arrival at the tea estate each one finds himself several rupees in debt for the expense of the transit.

Their average amount of wages is about 12 cents a day, but each man is set a certain task and if it is not completed he receives only half pay, so that if he is slow, or lazy or ill, he may expect but six cents daily. Under these circumstances the debt keeps on increasing, for the estate is far in the country, away from any town or village, and the tea company consequently sells rice and the other necessaries of life to its own coolies. They cannot buy elsewhere.

"Oh, but they like to be in debt!" said a young planter. "They think they are not doing the best possible thing for themselves unless they owe as much as the company will allow." The planter was very young, and perhaps he did not realize the force of what he was saying; but in any case, what a confession of despair! At the end of the week the coolie does not receive any money; his debt is simply ticked down a little deeper. If he runs away to a neighboring estate he is soon sent back in irons. He is a slave, and must remain so to the end of his days; but poor food, thin clothing and the cool air and mists of the mountains soon bring on lung disease, of which the slightly bodied Tamil easily dies.—Youths' Companion.

CHAPTER II.

Jasper Noel did suit Barbara exactly, even more perfectly than she had ever fancied any man could. He was frank and simple of manner and open of speech, but had a strong will, and Barbara loved a strong will. Then he also had that generosity which is apt to accompany the artistic temperament. His admiration for women was of the idealistic sort, tenderly chivalrous and reverential. Barbara laughed to herself over his unworldly faith, while the sensation of tears stung her eyes. She saw that his worldly experience had not been excessively broad or else that he had passed along with eyes closed to the selfishness and folly of her set. He painted well, surprisingly well for a young man of such great expectations, and devoted himself assiduously to work. That also appealed to her. "He will be great as well as rich, and he is so lovable, so lovable," she acknowledged to herself.

She had always expected to be interested in the personality of the man she married, but not to the extent that Noel absorbed her. It was almost alarming. "I think I love him; yes, I'm sure I love him." She rested her chin on her hands and mused awhile. Why should her heart beat so fast and every time she recalled a tender glance or a whispered word of his? He never had made love to her as other men, why should she blush and palpitate? "Well, positively this is the first real mystery I ever came across in my life. I feel so different, so very different.'

She began walking the floor of her little room with a restlessness that would have astonished Mrs. Waring could that lady have been a spectator. "Yet they say that's always the way," she continued musing to herself. "One reads about it until one is weary and yet one is drawn on just the same, and it is always new."

The deep disquiet of her soul bewildered her. There were some trinkets on her bureau and she arranged and rearranged these, scanning the effect each time as though the result were a matter of grave moment. But her thoughts were all the while busy with other things. Finally obeying an impulse she put on her best walking gown and set forth for Noel's studio, but this was the first time she had ever gone alone, and she wondered now what her mother would say. But she must see him, analyze him in the light of this new revelation, if she couldn't analyze herself. She knew that it was his working hour, so she opened the door and walked in.

He was painting away with all fervor, with a dirty heavy-mouthed droop-eyed child before him as a model.

"Why, Miss Waring," he cried delighted. "I'm so glad you've come to-day. I've been wishing all morning that you could be here. I wanted you to see this new model. See what a wild lovely tangle in her hair, and what long eyelashes she has. I found her on the street and asked her to come up with me. She makes a fine study in color with that yellow drapery behind her."

Barbara was not artistic enough to easily reflect his enthusiasm, yet the picturesqueness of the child was not entirely lost upon her.

"She is very good," she agreed, absently, and now that she stood in his presence wished that she had not come. "Please go on with your work," she begged after a moment. "I shall feel sorry if you don't, and talk to me about your model. Where did you find her?"

"On the street. Do sit here on this chair where I can see you, too, if I am to work while you are here."

But she was too restless, uneasy over the boldness of her visit, to sit down. She continued to walk around looking at sketches and odds and ends of drawing. Noel's eyes followed all her movements and his interest in his work flagged. When Barbara saw the little model stealing softly away, some shining coins in her dirty little hand, she felt that she too must go.

"Not just this moment," he pleaded, putting out his hand.

"But I only came in for a moment. I have some shopping—an appointment—" she stammered, blushing and confused. Then she looked up at him as they stood facing each other, and he took one of her hands between both of his.

"Is it true, Barbara?"

"Is what true?"

"I love you, love you so, do you love me a little? I—I seem to read it in your eyes."

"Oh, you must let me go," she breathed, suffering an intenser fright over her own emotion than over the impropriety of the situation, standing there alone with him in his studio.

"Yes, this instant, sweetheart; but I'm coming this evening to see you."

"Yes, come," she faltered, as she vanished through the doorway and fled downstairs.

The engagement was publicly announced in a few days. Mrs. Col. Waring believed in letting the world appreciate her triumphs. She confided the story of Noel's wealth and high connection to two or three gossipy friends, and the poor princess figured largely in the story, too.

Little notices crept into the papers and Barbara was envied as well as admired. Noel was too blissfully happy to heed anything outside of his sweetheart and his pictures. He had been accepted, and discriminating critics had given them high praise. It was about this time that Tom Warring returned from California. A lucky financial deal had added considerably to his fortune, and he was gay accordingly; yet his smile grew a trifle grim when told of Barbara's engagement. "I thought she'd make him forget the other woman, but I'm afraid men are faithless creatures anyway. I'm true as anybody to love, but not to its personification. I thought I had left my heart safely in New York, and now I believe it's in Mexico. Stunning creature I met down there!" But sentimental regrets could not cloud Mr. Waring's satisfaction in his financial success. He beamed upon the world like a full-risen sun and returned thanks for his good fortune in liberal donations to favorite charities and a diamond pin to Barbara.

It was two days after his return that he received another foreign letter, and he recognized James Noel's handwriting before he broke the seal.

"Dear Waring—I regret exceedingly that I troubled you with that former letter about my son. He did not sail for America, but secretly married the widow. The bad taste of the matrimonial affair still lingers bitter around my mouth, but there's no use worrying now, and our daughter-in-law is staying with us. By the way—"

Waring did not stop to turn over the page and finish the letter. He felt his hair rising, and an ague creeping down his back. Young Noel still abroad and married! Then what of this other man who bore his name, who had won Barbara. An adventurer? The thought was awful.

Twenty minutes later he rushed into Mrs. Waring's apartment, breathless, turbulent, the open letter still in his hand. The drawing-room was free of visitors. Mrs. Col. Waring reclined by the open fire absorbed in a book, while half way down the room Barbara sat radiant, talking with Noel. Waring felt like springing upon the young villain for holding the girl's hand, but restrained himself, because such a course would be unwise as well as lacking in dignity. Still his anger increased with every stride he took forward into the room. Mrs. Waring sprang nimbly to her feet.

"Good heavens! Tom, what's the matter?"

"The devil's to pay," he cried fiercely. "That man is a—a—the Lord only knows what," his voice failing him, one finger pointed at Noel.

"What is the matter?" inquired the young man, also rising.

"Matter, sir, matter, you ask me the matter? Read that and you'll find out. Oh, it shows you up well," thrusting the letter into his hand. Mrs. Waring looked on in disgust, disquieted and yet firm.

Noel read the letter hastily, his face clearing. He remembered Waring as he had first seen him and thought he comprehended the situation.

"You are a little excited now," he said pleasantly, even amusedly. "I think you must have missed part of this letter. It explains the situation pretty well, and—and—" he broke into a hearty laugh. "I feel very much as though I had stepped out of a pink-bound story book. He has mistaken my identity, Barbara, he has mistaken it quite seriously."

There was a twinkle in his eye, but he noted with surprise that Barbara's face wore an expression of puzzled anxiety. Waring began reading the letter aloud. "By the way"—he read beginning where he had left off—"my nephew, Allen's son, writes me that he has settled in New York and knows you as well as some of your relatives. I hope he'll be more successful in his art than his father was in business. Poor Allen, you must remember what a dreamy, impractical fellow he was." Waring paused, feeling decidedly blank. "Poor father! We felt satisfied with each other. We didn't care for the money; you would have loved him Barbara." Then he looked again at her. "Oh, pardon me, I did not think. Of course I have only my art, and three thousand a year, not much to live upon. But I didn't realize, I didn't know the money might make a difference to you. How blind and selfish of me. Under the circumstances it is more than needless for me to explain to you how free you are, Miss Waring."

The coals dropped softly in the grate. Between rage and disappointment Mrs. Col. Waring had been almost paralyzed. But the attitude of her daughter consoled her, and Noel's words were like balm to her heart.

"You have at least earned the good will of both Barbara and me by appreciating the situation so perfectly," she finally said, addressing him. "I shall always consider you a friend of the family, one of our best friends, in fact," her tone beginning to take on a tinge of effusiveness. "Barbara is such a sensible girl I have never felt any anxiety about her. This is a severe test—but I am proud of you both."

No one responded to her little speech. Twilight seemed to turn suddenly black, and even Mrs. Waring shivered slightly and drew her black lace scarf more closely about her.

"That fire is dying down, I must ring for coal," she remarked. "I wonder that Maria doesn't come in to light the gas."

"DID YOU THINK I'D GIVE YOU UP FOR SUCH A CONSIDERATION?"

as a wavering yellow gleam wandered in from the street lamp. "I hope we shall see you when you—you feel like dropping in for a cup of tea, Mr. Noel."

But Barbara sprang to her feet as Noel started for the door. Her face crimsoned, her eyes glistened mistily.

"You don't think that such a trivial consideration as money could come between us, do you, Jasper? You are"—her voice was beginning to quiver and break. "Why, you are unworthy of my love, almost, if that is the way you take me. You know, you must know, that my lot lies with yours, whatever—"

It was plain that she could not say any more just then for tears, but she was resting against him and he stroked her hair with the soft tender touch we reserve for children and people most precious to us, holding her fast and close.

"I understand," he whispered from the depths of his content, "I understand."

THE END.

Novel Uses of the Wheel.

Daisy Bell and her lyrical chronicler need no longer feel compelled to go tandem through weal or woe. They may now ride side by side on a three-wheeled affair. If this is not fin de siecle enough they could use a tandem affair with three wheels which offers especial features of comfort for both riders.

What has been called the "bicycle balloon" is a combination of balloon, parachute and cycle. It is for military use. Should the balloon be pierced by bullets the aeronaut is expected to grab his bicycle in one hand, his parachute in the other and jump to the ground, after which he must "get on his uninjured wheel and ride safely away.

Another use to which the bicycle is put in France is an ambulance. An ordinary safety wheel is combined with a folding stretcher. Answering a hurry call the doctor rides to the scene of an accident. He then unfolds the stretcher, and placing the patient upon it, wheels him to the hospital.

The man who will hereafter ride around the world will be able to carry his trunk with him, and a large trunk at that. In France and England the butchers and bakers use a three-wheel machine for delivering their products. It looks like a small mail wagon. A large box is situated between the rear wheels. The riding saddle is in front of this. There are pedals, a handle bar, and there you are.

Several London papers have used the tricycle for years as a means of delivering the daily edition; but the three-wheel machine has been made to serve the ends of trade by being constructed so as to print legends and advertising mottoes on the pavement over which it passes.

Governor Morton's Ruse.

Governor Morton of New York is probably the shrewdest man of affairs on this continent, and any business would find his withdrawal a serious matter. When he was last in London, Morton, Ross & Co. wanted to transport an immense sum to their banking house in a great hurry from the Bank of England, and there was no one trustworthy at hand to do it. Mr. Morton had the fortune in bank notes put up in a cheap old trunk, and taken to the sidewalk. He then haggled with an expressman to carry it for a shilling to the building where it was needed. So the vast sum was toted away like a cheap piece of baggage, and much astonished the expressman was to receive a £5 note from Mr. Morton when he delivered the little trunk.

A Child's Right to Property.

With children, as with adults, what they possess ought to be recognized as being absolutely their own. But this is very far from being the case. Sometimes a grown-up person has need of some article belonging to a child, and the rightful owner is so coaxed and blamed and shamed as to be actually compelled to give up the article. In some cases it is taken without asking.

No grown person would be treated thus, and no child ought to be, nor would be by any caretaker who could enter sympathetically into the feelings of the child.

One ought to "respect the rights of property" where children are concerned as scrupulously as with grown people; and when this is intelligently done the children themselves soon learn to recognize these rights with one another, and quarrels between them are reduced to a minimum. But if, on the other hand, the child's own rights are ruthlessly trampled on by those whom he is taught to consider his infallible teachers, it is only natural that he, in his turn, should learn to trample as ruthlessly on the rights of others.

Our Lady of Charity, Ottawa.

The Sisters of Good Sheppard Highly Recommend

Ryckman's Kootenay Cure.

A Lost Voice Restored — Unexpected Deliverance—Praise Given Where Praise Was Due.

Monastery of Our Lady of Charity,
411 St. Andrew Street,
Ottawa, May 19, 1896.

S. S. Ryckman, Esq.,
Hamilton, Ont.,

Dear Sir,—You must have found it strangely ungrateful on our part never to have thanked you for the Kootenay Cure you were so kind as to send us last winter. The fact is we had it a long time before we knew to whom we were indebted, until Rev. Father McGuckin, Rector of the Ottawa University, told us that he had sent you our name and you were kind enough to send the medicine gratis.

Those amongst our sisters who took it find themselves much benefited, especially cases of Indigestion, poverty of the blood, and the after effects of the Grippe. But there is one thing it cures which we have not noticed in your publications, and which we are happy to be able to announce to all great singers. One of our sisters who sings in our choir took the Grippe last December. She was ill a long time, as it specially affected the bronchial tubes, and, although she recovered slowly, still continued weak. Her voice, however, remained so husky that she had to give up singing altogether. About two weeks ago she began to try the Kootenay Cure, and, besides feeling stronger, finds her voice coming back so quickly that she is already able to sing short pieces.

Thanking you heartily for the medicine you sent us and recommending it to all sufferers, and especially to all singers, we have the honor to be, sir,

Your humble servants,
THE SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY, GOOD SHEPHERD.

Because other alleged remedies for piles, scrofula, eczematic eruptions, scald head, chafing, black heads, salt rheum and skin diseases generally have proved useless, don't condemn Dr. Chase's Ointment. It has never been known to fail. For instance, Nelson Simmons, Meyersburg, Ont., writes: "I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for Itching Piles, and can recommend it highly. Since using it I have had perfect freedom from the disease."

Peter Vanallen, L'Amable, Que., had the eczema for three years. He tried three doctors, but received no benefit. One box of Dr. Chase's Ointment and three boxes of Dr. Chase's Pills cured him completely. Large scales covered his legs and body, but the Ointment soon removed them. He will swear to these facts.

Chase's Ointment may be had from any dealer or from the manufacturers, Edmanson, Bates & Co., 45 Lombard street, Toronto. Price 60 cents.

Mother's greatest remedy for coughs, could, bronchicial and lung affections is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. The medical taste is wholly disguised making it pleasant to take. Large bottle 25 cents.

THEY COUNT BY THE SCORE

Yea, By the Hundreds, Those Who Have Been Cured of Dire Disease By South American Nervine.

A Remedy Widespread and Universal in Its Application.

Where Other Medicines Have Failed and Doctors Have Pronounced the Cases Beyond Cure, This Great Discovery Has Proven a Genuine Elixir of Life.

The Same Verdict Comes From Old and Young, Male and Female, Rich and Poor, and From All Corners of the Dominion.

If it is the case that he who makes two blades of grass grow where only one had grown before is a benefactor of the race, what is the position to be accorded that man who by his knowledge of the laws of life and health gives energy and strength where languor, weakness and anticipation of an early death had before prevailed? Is not he also a public benefactor? Let those who have been down and are now up through the use of South American Nervine give their opinions on this subject. John Boyer, banker, of Lindsay, Ont., had made himself a hopeless invalid through years of overwork. At least he felt his case was hopeless, for the best physicians had failed to do him good. He tried Nervine, and these are his words: "I gladly say it: Nervine cured me and I am to-day as strong and well as ever." Samuel Ayre, of Meaford, was cured of neuralgia of the stomach and bowels by three bottles of this medicine. Jas. Sherwood, of Windsor, at 70 years of age, suffered from an attack of paralysis. His life, at that age, was despaired of. But four bottles of Nervine gave him back his natural strength. A victim of indigestion, W. F. Bolger, of Renfrew, says: "Nervine cured me of my suffering, which seemed incurable, and had baffled all former methods and efforts." Peter Esson, of Paisley, lost flesh and rarely had a good night's sleep, because of stomach trouble. He says: "Nervine stopped the agonizing pains in my stomach the first day I used it. I have now taken two bottles and I feel entirely relieved and can sleep like a top." A representative farmer, of Western Ontario, is Mr. C. J. Curtis, residing near Windsor. His health was seemingly completely destroyed through la grippe. No medicine did him any good. "To three bottles of Nervine," he says, 'I attribute my restoration to health and strength." Neither man or woman can enjoy life when troubled with liver complaint. This was the sentiment and feeling of W. J. Hill, the well-known bailiff of Bracebridge. "I was so bad," says he, "that one of my medical attendants said that I was dying, but, thank God, I am not dead yet. From the first few doses I took of Nervine I commenced to feel better, and am to-day restored completely to my usual health." A resident of the Maritime Provinces, in the person of S. Jones, of Sussex, N.B., says: "For twelve years I was a martyr to indigestion, constipation and headache. The treatment of several physicians did not help me. I have taken a few bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say that I am a new man."

A shrewd observer of human nature has said: "The hand that rocks the cradle moves the world." How important it is, then, that health and strength should be made the lot of the mothers of this country. The women of Canada are ready by scores to tell of the benefits that have come to them through the use of South American Nervine. Mrs. R. Armstrong, of Orillia, wife of the colporteur of the Bible Society of that town, suffered for six years from nervous prostration. Medical assistance did not help. "In all," she says, "I have taken six bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say this is the one medicine that has effected a cure in my case." Mrs. John Dinwoody has been for 40 years a resident of Flesherton, and has reached the allotted three-score years and ten. Three years ago her system sustained severe shock through the death of a daughter. Nervine was recommended. She perseveringly took 12 bottles of medicine, with the result that she is to-day again strong and hearty. Hundreds of women suffer from impoverished blood and weakened nerves. "All vitality," says Mrs. J. Ballis, of Brampton, "seemed to have forsaken my system. I was unable to get relief from any source until I commenced taking South American Nervine. The results are most satisfactory—greater far than I could have hoped for." It came within the way of Mrs. H. Stapleton, of Wingham, to treat under the best physicians, both in Canada and England, for heart disease and nervous debility, but she failed to get any relief. "I was advised," she says, "to take South American Nervine, and must say I do believe that if I had not done so I would not be alive to-day."

Newspaper space is too valuable to permit of further additions to these earnest words of testimony from those who know just what they are talking about. In the common language of the day, they have been there, and are speaking from the heart. The dozen or more witnesses that here speak have their counterparts by the hundreds, not only in the province of Ontario, but in every other section of the Dominion. South American Nervine is based on a scientific principle that makes a cure a certainty, no matter how desperate the case may be. It strikes at the nerve centers from which flows the life blood of the whole system. It is not a medicine of patchwork, but is complete and comprehensive in its action.

HOLIDAY RATES.

American Roads Meet the C.P.R. Excursion Rates.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—The joint meeting of the Central Passenger committee and of the trunk lines has decided to meet the excursion rate made by the Canadian Pacific from points in the far Northwest to points in Eastern Canada. The Great Northern and Northern Pacific will meet the excursion rate to St. Paul, and the Chicago-St. Paul lines have agreed to meet the rates from St. Paul to this city. It only remains to secure the cooperation of the lines east of this city.

The roads of the joint traffic association declining to make the rate asked by the transcontinental and Chicago-St. Paul lines, the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific will turn over all the business that will bring on excursion rates to the Soo line at St. Paul.

The western roads have decided to make the usual reductions for the Christmas and New Year's holidays, but they will not make any reduction for Thanksgiving. The rate for the holidays will be one and one-third fare between all points within 200 miles of each other.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

A rumor is current that Mr. J. S. Clute will in the future give his whole attention to the duties of his position as inspector of customs, leaving the work of collector for the port of New Westminster for some other official to perform. Mr. Peter Grant, for many years Mr. Clute's chief assistant, is named as likely to be appointed collector for this port. He is thoroughly efficient, painstaking and withal obliging official, so his promotion would be a matter for general congratulation, both among his numerous personal friends and the many others, who, in their business relations with him, have found in him courtesy and consideration towards the public, united with a zealous watchfulness over the interests of the revenue department.

Rev. Herbert H. Gowen, rector of St. Barnabas parish, New Westminster, has received a call from Bishop Barker, of Olympia, and the vestry of Holy Trinity, Seattle, to take charge of Holy Trinity parish in succession to the late Dean Watson. Mr. Gowen has the matter under consideration.

Messrs. Layfield and Salt, of New Westminster, have obtained the contract for erecting the buildings for Mr. John Peck's foundry and machine shop.

The body of the late Mr. Nathan Woodward was brought up from Woodward's Slough on the steamer Edgar this morning. Numbers of friends and relatives also came up, and these were joined by others on arrival. The interment took place in the Odd Fellow's cemetery, Sapperton.

VANCOUVER.

A. M. Bullock was found guilty of acting for an insurance company not licensed to do business in Canada and was fined $20 with the option of 30 days in jail. He paid the fine under protest.

A man named Coldwell was brought down last night by the Comox with a broken leg. It seems that the injured man was a miner and sustained the injury mentioned in an explosion.

The surveyors of the Vancouver, Victoria & Eastern Railway & Navigation Company will in a few days commence the survey for the proposed line from Hope to Ladner. They are at present still in the mountains.

Mr. C. C. Eldridge, of the late firm of Major & Eldridge, is again in business, having re-opened the retail department of the firm on Water street. The expressions of gratification that Mr. Eldridge has made another start and wishes for his success are universal.

The McTavish family, numbering twelve, who created quite a little excitement in Winnipeg by marching round the town to the strains of the bagpipes, arrived here on Thursday's express, and left on the Joan for Nanaimo. It rained too hard for them to do a march here, but those on the wharf were treated to a tune on Scotia's pipes.

Mayor Collins has received a letter from Mr. J. J. Nickson, of the Golden River Quesnelle, Limited, at Cariboo, stating that that company require another hundred men on the works, which will be continued throughout the winter until March next. The wages paid are as follows: Men on earthwork, $2.50 per day; good timber men, $3 per day. The charge for board is $7 per week.

The many friends of ex-Ald. Gavin will be pleased to learn that the report of his death in South Africa has no foundation. A letter was received from him yesterday by Mr. T. Mathews, who acts as his agent here, dated at Capetown October 10th. At the time of writing he was enjoying the best of health. He says that the Matabele insurrection has unsettled things a good deal and some time may elapse before business asumes its former activity. He also states that the Boers are hospitable people but somewhat superstitious, and there is a strong race hatred between them and the British settlers.

Mr. W. R. Rust, manager of the Ryan smelter at Tacoma, who is in Vancouver just now says that his company will commence the erection of a smelter here within sixty days. It has been known for some time that the company with which Mr. Rust is connected has been figuring upon building a smelter at this point, but the delay in making a commencement has caused a feeling of doubt as to their intentions. Mr. Rust now says that his company will without doubt put in a smelter with a capacity of 250 tons per day, and containing refineries for both copper and lead. Among the capitalists who are behind the enterprise is Mr. C. D. Simpson of Scranton, Pa.

Charteris, accused of arson, was acquitted at the assizes. Sheehan was found not guilty of having murdered Tosh McKenzie. William Robertson, who pleaded guilty to burglarling the Standard Oil Company's office, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment. Cassidy, for housebreaking, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment.

ROSSLAND.

The Rossland.

Weeks & Dunnison have bought the Stemwinder on Lookout Mountain, within half a mile of the Trail smelter. A company will be formed to work it.

For some time men have been prospecting the surface of the Boise, belonging to the Imperial Company. As reported last week they came on ore running from $18 to $22 in value at the depth of 26 feet, on another cutting made last week ore was got that assayed $45. This was practically on the surface. The company has decided to sink on the last find.

The excitement was extended to some extent among owners of mines to the south of Rossland to erect quite a large compressor plant to furnish power to the Nest Egg, Phoenix, Sunset No. 2, Hattie and other mines in that vicinity. The scheme may yet be carried through but for the present the Nest Egg company has decided to put in a plant of its own. On Monday night the order was placed with Mr. Mendenhall for a four drill compressor plant, with hoist and pump. This is to be delivered as soon as possible.

Two samples taken from the Silver Bell Sunday morning by a representative of the Rossiander, gave a value upon assay of $72.47 and $41.16 to the ton, chiefly in silver, but with gold, lead and copper as well.

Crosscutting continues from the bottom of the 32 foot shaft on the Phoenix, where a vein running from 18 inches to 2 feet is being followed. Samples brought in from time to time were put together for assay on Monday and $34 in value obtained.

The Corbin property has not yet been opened for sale, though both agents have opened books to receive applications. The approximate prices are yet all the agents can give, and are considered high in comparison with what lots situated on the present townsite at an equal distance from the business centre of the city are selling at. It is stated that as soon as lots are sold, proceedings will be taken by Charles Dondas to stop the sale. What the Paris Belle company has done has not yet been made public.

From the way mining stocks have been selling this week it seems that purchasers are beginning to look into the capitalisations of companies. The older ones which were capitalized for $500,000 have advanced with no particular reason except the one stated. Among those are High Ore, Nest Egg, Good Hope, Phoenix and the Eureka Consolidated, the latter having gone forward three points. Poorman has gone back from 9 to 8 cents on account of the assessment of one cent per share, recently levied. This action of the company has caused much dissatisfaction among holders of that stock. Why a mine with shipping ore should require more capital at this time cannot be understood by them, and the proposal is made by the holders of stock outside of those who hold the control to unite and demand an examination of the books. Whether they can or not the Poorman company will have to make a clearer explanation than any given yet of why an assessment is necessary at this time to save the stocks of foreign companies from being looked upon as investments it would be well to consider twice before entering upon. Monte Cristo, since the new machinery is in operation, is on the rise, and also Mayflower, in which the rich vein is widening.

Wonderful Cures of the South American Remedies

Mr. George Schlee, of Berlin Ont. for Years an Invalid, Cured by South American Nerviine—One Bottle of South American Kidney Cure Removes Disease, Where $100 in Other Remedies Failed—So Says D. J. Loche of Sherbrooke, Que.—South American Rheumatic Cure Cured J. A. Anderson of Calgary, N. W. T., Who was Bent Double.

NERVES AND STOMACH.—By striking immediately at the nerve centres, located at the base of the brain, which are the foundation of health or disease, South American Nervine cures where other remedies have failed. Mrs. George Schlee, wife of a prominent contractor, of Berlin, Ont., was an invalid for years; laid aside from her household duties. Every treatment failed her, until she used South American Nervine. Her words are: "Friends despaired of my ever getting strong again. No doctor did me any good. Some wished to perform an operation. I was induced to try South American Nervine, and the first bottle gave me great relief. After taking eight bottles I found myself completely cured."

KIDNEYS.—There is little use in treating kidney disease until the medicine is of a kind that will dissolve the uric acid in the blood which is the constituent element of every phase of kidney trouble. This is why D. J. Locke, of Sherbrooke, Que., though he spent $100 for treatment in various ways, to use his own words: "Never received marked relief," until he began the use of South American Kidney Cure, which entirely cured him. Rev. James Murdock of St. John, N. B., says: "I have received $100 worth of good from one bottle of South American Kidney Cure."

RHEUMATISM.—It is not possible to measure the agonies of rheumatism. James A. Anderson, of Calgary, N. W. T., suffered from rheumatism until he was bent down and was a perfect cripple. He says: "I suffered untold misery, and though treated by the best physicians in the country, spending a term in the hospital, I received no permanent relief. I got relief almost at once from South American Rheumatic Cure; and after the second bottle threw away my stick and was able to take up my work, and am now working every day."

WANTS A RECEIVER.

An Officer Gets the American Wheelmen's Association into Trouble.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—A receiver for the American Wheelmen's Protective Association was asked for in the circuit court by P. H. Barker, a stockholder. The concern is widely known among wheelmen, as it was indorsed by the League of American Wheelmen.

The association was incorporated Nov. 23, 1894, with a capital stock of $1000, notice being given that it would be increased to $52,000, but this has never been paid in. The bill says Edward D. Sniffen, secretary and treasurer, issued to himself 49,000 shares, representing the increase, and 5000 shares of over-issue of stock of a par value of $2, or $35,000 altogether. Sniffen, it is alleged, expended on his personal account all of the $30,000 collected except $6500 used for the expenses of the corporation. It is claimed that the assets do not exceed $5000, and that the concern is liable for 23,000 wheels valued at $50 each. All the officers were [illegible]

"My six year old daughter, Bella, was afflicted with eczema for 24 months, the principal seat of eruption being behind her ears. MCCULLAGH DYING.

Editor of the Globe-Democrat is Sinking Fast.

St. Louis, Nov. 13.—Joseph B. McCullagh, editor of the Globe-Democrat, is confined to his home by serious illness. He is suffering from a complication of Bright's disease and dropsy and partial paralysis of the lower limbs. For five weeks he has not been able to travel his room and his friends have given up expectations for his recovery.

Mr. McCullagh practically lived in his editorial office. He personally superintended the work of the local and telegraph departments, as well as dictating the policy of the paper and making up its editorial page. He was at his desk always at ten o'clock in the morning and never left it until 1 o'clock the next morning. The strongest constitution would not stand the strain, and his health broke down.

GRAU OPERA COMPANY.

Present Balfe's "Bohemian Girl" at the Victoria.

The return engagement of the Grau Opera Company furnished evidence of the fact that the Victoria theatregoers will patronize opera even under adverse conditions. The company had played here for a whole week, so that the novelty of listening to its artists had worn off; the "Bohemian Girl" had been given by the Carleton Company and others at the Victoria, the night was anything but pleasant for theatregoers, but still the house was full to overflowing. The company gave a passable interpretation of Balfe's opera. Miss Alice Johnson, who was a winsome Arline, sang and acted well, her solos winning rounds of applause. Miss Alice Carle as Queen of the Gypsies had plenty of opportunity for the use of her splendid voice and to display her marked ability as an actress. Mr. Robert Dunbar, who was in better voice than when the company was here before, made an acceptable Thaddeus. It was hardly fair to Victorians who so liberally patronized the company that they should be compelled to listen to Sylvian Langlois' singing of "The Heart Bowed Down." Those who heard Mr. Hamilton with the Carleton company, sing this beautiful solo, suffered much last night. Gilbert Clayton as Devilshoof and Eddie Smith as Florentine, furnished the only comedy in the opera, and were of course heartily applauded. The company is blessed with a well balanced chorus of sweet and well trained voices, that were heard at their best last evening.

This afternoon the "Tar and Tartar" was produced at the matinee and tonight "Ship Ahoy" will be presented for the first time in the city. By special request Miss Johnson will sing "Baby" and Miss Carle will recite "The Lion and the Glove." Miss Carle, Mr. Litt and Eddie Smith will present the trio and dance from De Wolf Hopper's "El Capitan."

Sad Complaints.

Ladies Must Protect Themselves.

Several ladies have recently written to the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes complaining of having received very worthless dyes from certain dealers (whose names are known) instead of the Diamond Dyes that were asked for.

The manufacturers of Diamond Dyes, while they deplore this unwise and dishonest practice of substituting, cannot give any greater protection to the public than they are now affording in the way of warnings through the columns of the press.

All buyers of dyes who ask for the Diamond Dyes should look for the name on the outer envelope. If the name "Diamond" is not seen, rest assured that you are being offered some miserable imitation.

Diamond Dyes are the only perfect Dyes in the world for home dyeing. The best druggists and dealers sell them.

QUEENSLAND BANK DEFICIT.

Examination by a Government Committee of Enquiry.

Brisbane, Nov. 13.—The government committee of inquiry into the state of affairs of the Queensland National bank has reported a deficit of £2,436,000, of which £1,183,000 is regarded as lost beyond recovery. The committee, however, reported that the bank has a sound and [illegible] But it is expected that with economy and reduction of the rate of interest paid to depositors the management ought to be able to extinguish the remainder of the deficit, amounting to a little more than £1,125,000, within 14 years. Liquidation, it was asserted, would be disastrous to the creditors in particular and the colony of Queensland in general.

After hearing the report the colonial legislature adopted a bill guaranteeing the current deposit for one year.

THE TURF.

VANDERBILT BUYS HORSES.

New York, Nov. 13.—A special to the Herald from Paris says:

M. Camille Blanc has sold thirteen yearlings to Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, who expects to commence racing operations in a short time in France.

A Herald correspondent called on M. Blanc for information on the subject.

"The news is perfectly correct," said the well-known French horse owner. "Not only have I sold these yearlings to Mr. Vanderbilt, but my training course at St. Louis de Poissy as well."

Mr. Vanderbilt expects to come to France next year, when he will look after the new charges himself. These yearlings are mostly the offspring of Stuart, Escogriffe and Lehardy.

SALE OF PALO ALTO STOCK.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Thirty-five head of thoroughbred yearlings from the Palo Alto farm were sold last night for $5,765, an average of $165. The highest price obtained was $610, which Peter Mitchell gave for Flandes, a chestnut colt by Flambeau-Flam. The colt is a brother to La Flecha. The lowest price obtained was $35, for a Cyrus colt, the last sold.

Nine yearlings sired by Racine brought an average of $207; fourteen by Flambeau brought an average of $180, while eleven by Cyrus brought over $108 on an average. One by Flood brought $190.

AFTER HIS WIFE.

Expressman Ashe of Vancouver in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—The officers of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer City of Puebla thought a wild man was visiting them when A. A. Ashe went aboard for particulars concerning the elopement of his wife and threatening to kill the man who had talked her into leaving her happy home.

Mr. Ashe was a resident of Vancouver, B. C., until a few days ago, when he sold a ranch and a prosperous express business so that he might chase his wife and kill the man who had taken her from him.

About two weeks ago Mrs. Ashe said to her husband that she wished to go to Nanaimo to see some friends. Instead of disembarking at Nanaimo Mrs. Ashe remained on the vessel and did not leave it until she reached Victoria. She stayed there only two hours and came on to this city, where she arrived on the 27th of last month.

Mr. Ashe waited a few days over the time his wife had promised to return and then telegraphed to Nanaimo, asking if she was ill. He received a dispatch that his wife had not been there, and his suspicions were immediately aroused. The loss of his wife was a tegrible blow to Mr. Ashe and he at once set out to find her. He sold his ranch and business, according to the story, for about one-third what they were worth.

Mr. Ashe was asked aboard the boat if he knew the man his wife ran away with and answered with a great many of the strongest adjectives that the fellow was a saloonkeeper. He told the name, but the officers of the steamer cannot remember what it was. He pulled a big pistol from his overall pocket saying:

"I swore when I married my wife I would protect her and I intend to do it."

OBJECT TO THE CONSUL.

Chinese Merchants of San Francisco Formulate a Petition.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Attorneys for the See Yup Company are preparing charges against Fung Yung Heng, acting Chinese Consul-General, with a view of having him removed from his office. The charges will be filed with the minister at Washington. The present consul-general has been here about a year and a half, the usual term of service being three years. The petition will be backed by all the influence of the See Yup organization. Full two-thirds of the merchants of Chinatown are members of the organization, and they are by far greater in numbers in China than the Sam Yups.

The recent bill in equity filed in the United States court, in which an injunction was granted against the consul-general, will form the basis of the charges.

VENEZUELA'S CLAIM.

Minister Says all They Asked for Has Been Conceded.

New York, Nov. 13.—Senor Jose Andrade, minister from Venezuela to the United States, is at the Hotel Savoy. He came here on business and is accompanied by his daughter. When asked whether the draft of the treaty of agreement with reference to the disputed territory claimed by England had been submitted to him he said: "No, it is not strictly correct to say that. In fact I am not aware that such a treaty is yet in existence. In the ordinary course it will be submitted to my government for approval. The published statement that the treaty had been drawn and was brought here by me is not correct. Neither have I any intention of returning to Caraccas with the treaty. There is much concerning the negotiations that I cannot speak of, but I may say that Venezuela's claim is practically conceded, for all we worked for was that the dispute be referred to a fair tribunal. Lord Salisbury's annual comment at the Lord Mayor's banquet, I believe, was brought out by President Cleveland's firm stand and by the knowledge that the American commission would and must render an adverse report."

JAIL DELIVERY.

Frank Crawford on Trial for Murder Breaks Jail.

Toledo, O., Nov. 13.—Frank Crawford, alias Harry or Harvey Davis, broke jail here at an early hour in the morning by sawing his way through the iron grating at the top of the jail and then letting himself to the ground with a quilt. Davis was held for trial on the charge of murdering Marshal Baker of North Baltimore, O., last August. He was transferred from the Bowling Green jail to this place to better insure his captivity. Crawford evidently had accomplices on the outside, as the sawing was done both from within and without. There were eight iron bars cut through. The iron was soaped that the saws would make no noise. The escape was made while two guards were on duty. This is the third jail delivery that has taken place here within the past thirteen months.

WRECKED BY ROBBERS.

Rail Torn Up and Train Goes Over an Embankment.

Montogomery, Ala., Nov. 13.—A train from Louisville this morning on the Louisville & Nashville, bound for New Orleans, was wrecked four miles from this place in a very wild country by train robbers. The engineer saw an obstruction on the track too late to stop the train, which went crashing down a steep embankment. A rail had been torn up and spiked down again three or four inches out of line. The train, comprising two mail coaches, a baggage and two first class coaches, was completely wrecked. The track was torn up for fully 200 yards. Three persons were seriously injured. Bloodhounds have been set on the trail of the wreckers.

TO PROSECUTE MACARTNEY.

Detention of Chinese Doctor at London Embassy Causes Trouble.

London, Nov. 13.—The Daily News says the government has decided to prosecute Sir Halladay Macartney, councilor of the Chinese legation in London, for his share in the arrest and detention of Sun Yat Yet, a Chinese doctor. The News adds that the British government has also resolved, under certain circumstances, to prosecute the Chinese officials implicated in the affair unless the Chinese authority shall itself prosecute this official, as requested by the Marquis of Salisbury. Sir Halliday Macartney when questioned on the subject yesterday, said he knew nothing about the government's decision in the case.

ROBBED IN A CAR.

Highway Men go Through a Passenger on a Street Car.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—M. A. Stark, of Colorado was robbed in an Adams street car near the Union depot yesterday by Barney Birch and Paddy Ryan, who are well known to the police here. They forcibly held Stark, although the car was crowded with other passengers, and deprived him of a valuable diamond and his pocketbook, which contained $4,000 in checks and notes.

An officer was attracted by the excitement on the car and arrested the two men as they were escaping. The property was recovered in their possession. Birch is said to be wanted in Philadelphia, where last August, it is claimed, he robbed a jewelry house of upward of $1,500 worth of diamonds.

'FRISCO'S CHINATOWN.

Board of Health Officers Mining Shacks Destroyed.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—The board of health has marked a number of buildings in Chinatown for destruction, and the work of cleansing that section of the city will be pushed vigorously. Certain sections of the Latin quarter have been found to surpass even Chinatown in filth, and that section will also receive the attention of the health officers.

MUST EVACUATE.

Argentine Demands That Bolivia Evacuate San Antonio.

New York, Nov. 14.—A Herald special from Buenos Ayres says the Argentine government has ordered the minister of foreign affairs at La Paz to demand that Bolivia evacuate the territory of San Antonio, which the latter government recently occupied.

HON. MR. TARTE.

Speech at New Westminster Banquet—The School Question.

In his speech at the New Westminster banquet the Hon. Mr. Tarte said, in opening, that the more he travelled through Canada, and out of it, the more he loved his country. Canada was a splendid country. He then rapidly sketched the different provinces of the Dominion from east to west. He loved Prince Edward Island, which gave to the Dominion Hon. Mr. Davies, who would be with us in a few days (cheers); Nova Scotia, which had given Hon. Mr. Fielding, Sir Charles Tupper and Aulay Morrison (cheers, followed by three cheers for Aulay Morrison); New Brunswick, which had given us Blair and Foster; Quebec, which had given us Laurier; Ontario, which had given to Canada Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir Oliver Mowat (cheers); Manitoba and the Northwest, with their splendid boundless prairies and great agricultural resources; British Columbia with its magnificent scenery, vast and varied resources, and the good people amongst whom he was to-night. (Cheers and laughter.) He would like to settle down and live here. (Cheers.)

The Liberal government, of which he was a member, had been entrusted with the duty of governing Canada, and the people might be assured the government would administer the affairs of the country to the best of their ability. They were pledged to promote harmony and peace among all classes of the population. They had addressed themselves to that important question, the Manitoba school question, and he was gratified to be able to say that the question would soon disappear from the political arena. (Cheers.) He had seen it stated in the despatches that Archbishop Langevin had said that the Catholics had been ignored in the settlement. That was not so. He (the speaker) denied that there had been a hitch. When he left Manitoba, a few days ago, the question was practically settled. (Cheers.) The draft of the settlement had not then been referred to His Grace Archbishop Langevin, and he would be surprised to hear His Grace would denounce an agreement before having seen it. The settlement would satisfy all men of good will. (Cheers.) The government did not expect to satisfy Archbishop Langevin, or their opponents. The Roman Catholic minority would have religious education and the French language taught in their schools, and the national schools of Manitoba would be maintained. (Cheers.) We had no time, in this splendid country of ours, for religious discord. We could be brethren in spite of religious differences. (Cheers.) We had a magnificent country to improve and develop.

The government, continued Hon. Mr. Tarte, would be an economical government, but it would be a progressive government. This visit to the west had been a revelation to him. He had heard a great deal, but could only appreciate the importance of the west by a personal visit such as this. He was the first minister of the new Liberal government to visit the west, and he would be followed by Hon. Mr. Davies and others. (Cheers.) He had found out that the government could safely spend a good deal of money in British Columbia. (Cheers and laughter.) There was the Fraser river, which he had come out here specially to look into. He had brought his chief engineer with him, and that showed he meant business. There were railway schemes, too, that could stand some government assistance. (Laughter.) He could not make promises with regard to all these things. The government would do what it could, however. Canada was rich enough to develop the country. The prosperity of the east depended upon the development of the west.

In conclusion, Hon. Mr. Tarte returned thanks for his kind reception, and the many kind things that had been said and written about him. He knew how the newspapers were made, however. (Laughter.) He would freely admit there were better men than himself. (Cries of "No, no"), but he had done his duty to the best of his ability. (Cheers.) He had been a Conservative, and he did not regret it. Sir John Macdonald was a splendid man of broad statesmanlike ideas. (Applause.) But, when he departed to a better world, he (Mr. Tarte) felt he could change his allegiance. He did so at a time when the Conservatives were a strong party, because he could not agree with their methods.

Again he wished to thank his English-speaking countrymen of this province for the cordial welcome they had extended to him, and to Mme. and Mlle. Tarte, and the friends accompanying him. They had been treated like spoilt children, dining, dancing everywhere. If he was a little younger, he would like to settle here. (Cheers, laughter, and a voice, "you are young enough.") This was his first visit to the province; it would not be his last. The people might rest assured that the Liberal government took a great interest in this province.

SOUTHERN FORTS.

Report from Trunk Lines as to Ability to Handle Troops.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—A special dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from Washington City says: The war department has called upon the leading trunk line roads running to Key West, New Orleans and other gulf ports for an immediate statement of their capacity to move troops, supplies and heavy war material. The information demanded is complete to the most minute detail and embraces such questions as: "If you are requested to move 5000 troops over your lines, with the necessary equipment and supplies, how long after notification will you require to perform the service?" Caution as to secrecy is imposed on all roads called on for information.

How to Cure Bilious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pains in my stomach caused by biliousness and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people. Mrs. F. Butler, Fairhaven, Conn. Persons who are subject to bilious colic can ward off the attack by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by all druggists. THE PROGRESS OF GOLF.

The antiquity of golf is well known, its saintliness has lately been discovered. St. Cuthbert was "great at sport," and he is represented on a window in the aisles of St. Cuthbert's church, Earl's Court, London, with his club in hand. The oldest club, outside of Scotland, is at Pau in the Basses Pyrenees. Here the game is, in general, played leisurely, the last four of the eighteen holes being almost invariably omitted, but the tournament there last year was a great success. The game is spreading among all classes. The Prince of Wales has been at it lately. Mr. Balfour ranks as only a second rate player, but is credited with a great drive of two hundred and fifty yards, a drive not to be compared, however, with the longest on record, by Tait, of St. Andrew's, three hundred and forty-one yards, nine inches. Mr. Asquith, ex-home secretary, plays golf, but does so very badly. On St. Andrew's links he, when accompanied by Tom Morris and others, skied his ball and, thinking it would strike Mrs. Asquith, who accompanied him, he cried "Oh!" She retorted, "Oh, never mind, it's only your wife." From this incident it seems, that a golfer by skying his ball can hit himself, or the better half of himself, at least. Mrs. Asquith is said, by the Dublin Evening Herald, to play always with her hat. Like this remark is the following scrap of conversation, between an old hand and a new hand, heard on a certain course:

Old Hand—What did you go round in?

New Hand—Oh, my ordinary clothes.

Mrs. Tuttlebury was also as green as New Hand, for she used Tuttlebury's clubs for beating carpets and smashed two of them. She also burned the mashie handle, thinking it a splendid new coal rake to clean out the flues with. Work-a-day golfers are getting notorious, since they made a little girl run to her mother crying, "Mither, mither, here's some Glasga gouffers comin' will I bring in the hen's meat?" and Sunday golfers are even more notorious.

The influence of golf is being manifested in railway companies, on mechanical invention and on practical therapeutics. Golfers are now getting first class return tickets for single fare. A young lady golfer has invented a piece of furniture which holds a bike, is a hat and umbrella stand, and has a recess for golf implements and tennis rackets; and Mr. Osborne, of Glasgow, demonstrates the health-giving effects of golf in extreme old age, for he is seventy-five years of age and can do two rounds of an eighteen hole course, in one day, without fatigue.

Golf is spreading everywhere; not to speak of Canada, where the fraternity is on the increase. There are over two hundred golf clubs in the United States, and in Massachusetts, where it is the rage, proposals were, perhaps not too seriously, made by a Boston paper to turn the 1,576 abandoned farms into golfing courses. "It is true," the Tasmanian Mail says, "golf is not catching on very quickly here," and that the game at Capetown is not in a very thriving state; but it is being established all over France. One New Zealand club has over one hundred and thirty members, the champion of all the clubs in that country being Dr. George Gossett. Berlin has a club of sixty members who, last September, played their second match for their championship gold medal. The Courier says Whareragangi, Hawke's Bay, Napier, Te Matu, Pohui, Te Ante, Fremilay and Petane have all golf clubs and links. The question even arises, does Mars, if inhabited, possess a golf course? Most of the eminent golfers have keen gray eyes.
